Poem

God's Garden

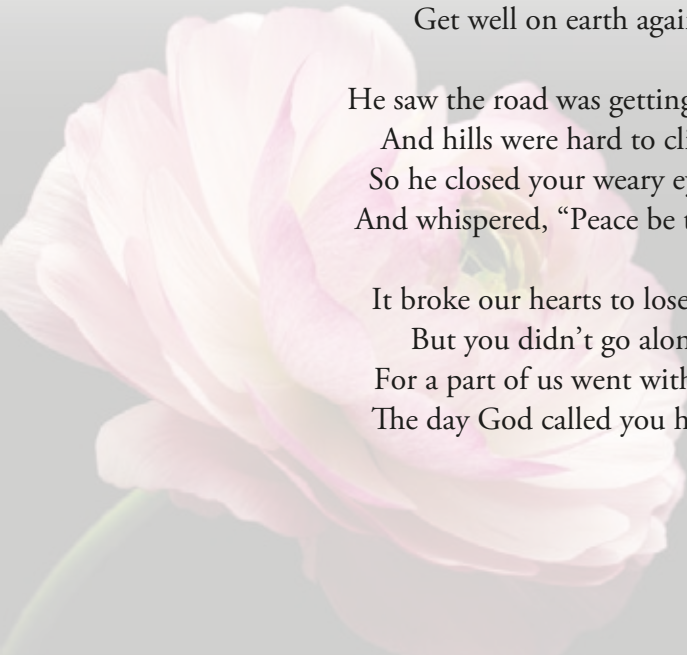

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For a part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Sister

I'm blessed to call you sister,
I also call you friend;
You've loved me unconditionally,
And stood through thick and thin.

You've shared my joys and sorrows,
My laughter and my tears.
You've been my inspiration
As we grew up through the years.

When we were little children
We laughed and played together;
Then growing up you stood by me,
Through good and stormy weather.

There's something God has given us
That's more than family;
He's placed a love for you, my sister,
Deep down in the heart of me.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Pat joined Going for Bust, which is a local charity with 13 shops supporting ladies with breast cancer and the breast cancer departments in Dorset and Hampshire hospitals and hospices, as a volunteer in March. Like many of the volunteers Pat had survived breast cancer. Pat was a real asset to the shop and whether you were 20 or 70 she welcomed everyone with a “Good morning young lady” or “Good morning young man”. All volunteers are valued greatly by the charity as was Pat for her dedication, reliability and good old fashioned hard work.

Pat will be greatly missed.
