WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

HYMN

How Great Thou Art (No. 380)

BIBLE READING

Psalm 23

POEM

Crossing The Bar
by Alfred, Lord Tennyson
read by Christopher

Sunset and evening star, and one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar, when I put out to sea,
But such a tide as moving seems asleep, too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell, and after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell, when I embark;
For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place the flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face-to-face when I have crossed the bar.

All Things Bright And Beautiful (No. 21)

NAVAL PRAYER

read by Hayley

O God, we ask you to take into your care and protection all who sail in ships. Make them alert and wise in their duties.

Make them faithful in times of routine, prompt to decide and courageously to act in times of crisis.

Protect them in the dangers and the perils of the sea.

Even in the storm grant that there may be peace and calm within their heart.

When they are far from home and far from loved ones, help them to be quite sure that, wherever they are, they can never drift beyond your care.

Take care of their loved ones in the days and weeks and months when they are separated, sometimes with half the world between them, and every time that they have to part, bring them together in safety and in loyalty again.

This we ask for your love's sake. Amen.

PRAYERS

ending with

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation

But deliver us from evil,

For thine is the kingdom,

The power and the glory,

Forever and ever.

Amen.
