WORDS OF WELCOME

to family and loved ones

A TRIBUTE IN VERSE

My Little Ways

Mary Smith

Listen here you gloomy lot,
I might be gone but I'm not forgot.
You're all here to say goodbye,
So, let me cheer you with some memories
Before you start to cry.

I'll remind you in this little rhyme,
I've been a moaner in my time,
And could moan for hours, sometimes days.
But no one's perfect, except me of course,
And these were just my little ways.

I was never one for being soppy,
Sometimes my words were short and choppy,
But I loved you all, that's true,
And if I could do it all again,
I'd do it all again with you.

So, I hope you share a little smile
As you meet here for a while
And recall the times we had.
I've loved and cared for all of you,
And for that, I am so glad.
