Poem

'Death Is Nothing At All'

read by Alice

Death is nothing at all
It does not count
I have only slipped away into the next room
Nothing has happened

Everything remains exactly as it was
I am I, and you are you
And the old life that we lived so fondly together is untouched, unchanged
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you, for an interval Somewhere very near Just round the corner

Reflection & Visual Life Tribute

'These Are The Days Of Our Lives' - Queen

Lasting Memories of Owen

Remembering Owen

Although I can no longer be there with you
There will always be reminders and memories that will forever remain

So, as you admire someone whose determination to embrace experiences and opportunities exceeds all expectations, remember me
When you see a Formula 1 high performance car thundering around the track, remember me
As you watch and hear the roar of the crowd as United hit the back of the net, then smile and remember me

Remember me in your thoughts and your memories
Remember all those good times that we shared
For if you think of me, I will always be with you
