POEM

Your Spirit

written by Tram-Tiara T. Von Reichenbach

I know that no matter what
You will always be with me.

When life separates us
I'll know it is only your soul
Saying goodbye to your body.

But your spirit will be with me always.

When I see a bird chirping on a nearby branch,

I will know it is you singing to me.

When a butterfly brushes gently by me so freely

I will know it is you assuring me you are free from pain.

When the gentle fragrance of a flower catches my attention,

I will know it is you reminding me

To appreciate the simple things in life.

When the sun shining through my window awakens me,

I will feel the warmth of your love.

A bouquet of yellow roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page, resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft, light green and white gradient.

When I hear the rain pitter patter against my windowsill
I will hear your words of wisdom
And will remember what you taught me so well:
That without rain, trees cannot grow,
Without rain, flowers cannot bloom,
Without life's challenges, I cannot grow strong.

When I look upon life,
I will think of your endless love you had for your family.
When I think of mountains, their majesty and magnificence,
I will think of your courage and strength.
No matter where I am,
Your spirit will be beside me,
For I know that no matter what,
You will always be with me
And our entire family.

READING

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
