WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD

by Bob Thiele and George D Weiss

read by Lucy Iliffe

I see trees of green, red roses too.
I see them bloom for me and you.
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world.

I see skies of blue and clouds of white.
The bright, blessed day, the dark, sacred night.
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world.

The colours of the rainbow, so pretty in the sky,
Are also on the faces of people going by.
I see friends shaking hands, saying, 'How do you do?'
They're really saying, 'I love you.'

I hear babies cry, I watch them grow.
They'll learn much more than I'll ever know.
And I think to myself, what a wonderful world.
Yes, I think to myself, what a wonderful world.
