SENTENCES FROM SCRIPTURE AND INTRODUCTION

by Reverend Margaret Caunt

PSALM 121

I lift my eyes up to the hills;
from where is my help to come?
From where is my help comes from the Lord,
the maker of heaven and earth.
He will not suffer your foot to stumble;
he who watches over you will not sleep.
Behold, he who keeps watch over Israel
shall neither slumber nor sleep.
The Lord himself watches over you;
the Lord is your shade at your right hand.
So that the sun shall not strike you by day,
neither the moon by night.
The Lord shall keep you from all evil;
it is he who shall keep your soul.
The Lord shall keep watch over your going out and your coming in, from this time forth for evermore.

HYMN

Morning has broken, like the first morning;
Blackbird has spoken, like the first bird.
Praise for the singing! Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall sunlit from heaven,
Like the first dewfall on the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness where His feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight! Mine is the morning
Born of the one light Eden saw play!
Praise with elation, praise every morning,
God's re-creation of the new day!

Eleanor Farjeon (1881-1965)

READING

from Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3

There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven.
A time to be born and a time to die.
A time to plant and a time to uproot.
A time to dance and a time to weep.
A time to tare and a time to mend.
A time to be silent and a time to speak.
A time to love and a time to hate.
A time for war and a time for peace.
God has made every thing beautiful in it's time
and he has set eternity in the hearts of men.

A POEM

The Star

read by Mum, Michelle

A light went out on earth for me
the day we said goodbye,
and on that day a Star was born,
the brightest in the sky.
Reaching through the darkness,
with it's rays of purest white,
lighting up the heavens,
as it once lit up my life.
With beams of love to heal
The broken heart you left behind,
where always in my memory
your lovely star will shine.

TIME OF PRAYER
led by Reverend Margaret

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

GRAVESIDE POEM

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there: I do not sleep.
I am all round you, in life itself.
In your hearts and mine a bond holds fast,
Of love forever while all creation lasts.

Mary Elizabeth Frye (1905-2004)
