

Jeremy Paul Jeans 'Jerry'

9th January 1947 - 23rd August 2020

A wine bottle and a snifter glass are placed on a wooden barrel. The glass is partially filled with red wine. A mallet is lying on the barrel next to the glass. The background shows rolling hills under a bright sky.

A bottle of wine and a glass of red wine are placed on a wooden barrel. The background is a soft, hazy landscape with rolling hills and a bright sky. The text is centered over the bottle and glass.

POEM

from Megan, Zac, Lola, Leah and Stanley

We really miss you, Grandad,
and we wish that you were here
to hug us with your loving arms
and lend a kindly ear.

Life goes on as always,
but things seem out of place
now that we can't call on you or see your smiling face.

Although it's really painful
to think that you are gone,
we know you're in a better place
when all is said and done.

We never will forget you,
and we'll never be apart
in all the special memories
we keep inside our hearts.

Sleep well, Grandad.

FAREWELL JERRY

We commend your free spirit to live on in the hearts
of everyone you touched along the way.

We say thank you for so much.
