CLOSING POEM

Last Journey

There is a train at the station
With a seat reserved just for me;
I'm excited about its destination,
As I've heard it sets you free.

The trials and tribulations,
The pain and stress we breathe
Don't exist where I am going,
Only happiness I believe.

I'm pleased that all of you are here
To wish me on my way;
It's not a journey you can join,
It's not your time today.

There'll be many destinations,
Some are happy, some are sad,
Each one a brief reminder
Of the great times that we've had.

Many friends and family are waiting,
Who took an earlier train
To greet and reassure me
That nothing has really changed.

We'll take the time together
To catch up on the past,
To build a new beginning,
One that will always last.

One day you'll take your journey
On the train, just like me,
And I promise that I'll be there
At the station and you will see,

That life is just a journey,
Enriched by those you meet;
No one can take that from you,
It's always yours to keep.

But now as no seat is vacant,
You will have to muddle through;
Make sure you fulfill your ambitions
As you know I'll be watching you.
