POEM

The Angels Came To Take You Away
composed by Irene

No matter what I say or do, the time will not erase
The memory of you suffering over many, many days.

You are at peace now, how often did we hope
That the angels would come and take you to heaven and help you cope.

Never did we think we would be sitting by your side,
Watching someone so beautiful pass before our eyes.

Wherever that you have gone to now, we hope that your son is there,
To care and cherish you and know the love we share.

For although we are apart, there never will be a time
That we will forget our special Mum, who is always in our hearts and minds.

*God bless you Mum,
We love you more than words can say.*

Following the service, the burial will take place at St Edmund's Churchyard,
St Edmund's Church,
St Edmund's Close,
Derby DE22 2DZ.

POEM

Eternal

A wife, a mother, a grandma too,
This is the legacy we have from you.

You taught us love and how to fight,
You gave us strength; you gave us might.

A stronger person would be hard to find,
And in your heart, you were always kind.

You fought for us all in one way or another,
Not just a wife, not just as mother.

For all of us you gave your best,
Now the time has come for you to rest.

So go in peace, you've earned your sleep,
Your love in our hearts, we'll eternally keep.

POEM

My Mother Kept A Garden

My mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
She planted all the good things
That gave my life its start.

She turned me to the sunshine
And encouraged me to dream,
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rains came
She protected me enough;
But not too much, she knew I'd need
To stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example
Always taught me right from wrong;
Markers for my pathway
To last my whole life long.

I am my mother's garden,
I am her legacy.
And I hope today she feels the love
Reflected back from me.
