Poem

"In days gone by, in ships of wood,
A sailor did what a sailor could
In war or peace they sailed the seas
A special breed of men are these."

"In troubled waters seas o'fair Steering a course where no man dares
As in the past is true today
They boldly sail into harms way."

"Oh God protect these valiant men
And bring them home again
To open arms and kisses warm Protect these warriors from every harm"

"When faces wrinkle and beards grow grey Mindsweeping sailors will gather and say Forgive us our faults, forgive us our sin Where the fleet goes, we've already been."

Lords Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us,
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen
