

In Loving Memory of

Dorothy May Law

20th June 1931 - 3rd October 2023

Wednesday 25th October 2023

at 10.00 am

St Augustine's Church, Sookholme

The background of the page is a soft-focus landscape. In the foreground, there is a field of numerous small, vibrant purple flowers, likely heather or a similar wildflower, growing in green grass. The middle ground shows rolling green hills, and the background features more distant, hazy hills under a pale, overcast sky. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

Order of Service

Conducted by The Reverend Canon Angela Fletcher

EULOGY AND ADDRESS

HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:
All things bright and beautiful...

The purple headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset and the morning
That brightens up the sky:
All things bright and beautiful...

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:
All things bright and beautiful...

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well:

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful
The Lord God made them all.*

Cecil Frances Humphreys Alexander (1818-1895)

A misty landscape with rolling hills and a field of purple flowers. The scene is hazy, with the sun low on the horizon, creating a soft, golden glow. The foreground is filled with a dense field of small purple flowers, likely heather or a similar wildflower, interspersed with green grass. The hills in the background are shrouded in a light mist, creating a sense of depth and tranquility.

PRAYERS

HYMN

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the works Thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed;

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze:
Then sings my soul...

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing,
Sent Him to die - I scarce can take it in:
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;
Then sings my soul...

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home - what joy shall fill my heart!
Then shall I bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul...

Stuart K. Hine (1899-1989)

POEM

Meet You At The Gate

read by great-niece, Rebecca Brown

A beautiful garden now stands alone,
Missing the one who nurtured it but now she is gone,
Her flowers still bloom and the sun, it still shines,
But the rain is like tear drops for the ones left behind,
The weeds lay waiting to take the garden's beauty away,
But the beautiful memories of its keeper are in our hearts to stay,
She loved every flower, even some that were weeds,
So much love she would plant with each little seed.
But just like her flowers she was part of God's plan,
So when it was her time he reached down his hand,
He looked through the garden, searching for the best,
That's when he found Dorothy, it was her time to rest.
It was hard for those who loved her to just let her go,
But God had a spot in his garden that needed a gentle soul.
So when you start missing Dorothy, remember if you just wait,
When God has a spot in his garden, she'll meet you at the gate...
