Grannie Everlasting Light

Our Grannie was a shining star
Whose light never faded even from afar,
The kindness she showed, the love she gave,
Were gifts that will forever stay.
The memories we shared, the moments we lived,
Are now a comfort, a light that won't fade.
For in her life she touched many hearts,
And left behind a legacy that forever imparts,
So farewell, dear Grannie, our friend,
For in our hearts, your light will never end.

Death Is Nothing At All

Death is nothing at all.
It does not count.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
Nothing has happened.
Everything remains exactly as it was.

I am I, and you are you,
And the old life that we lived so fondly together
Is untouched, unchanged.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by the old familiar name.
Speak of me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.

Laugh as we always laughed
At the little jokes that we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Continued...

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without an effort,
Without the ghost of a shadow upon it.

Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same that it ever was.
There is absolute and unbroken continuity.
What is this death but a negligible accident?

Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am but waiting for you, for an interval,
Somewhere very near, just around the corner.

All is well.
Nothing is hurt; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before.
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting
When we meet again!
