WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

A bouquet of pink roses is shown in the background, resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The lighting is soft and natural, highlighting the delicate petals and green leaves.

POEM

Our Mother Kept A Garden

Our mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
She planted all the good things
That gave our lives their start.

She turned us to the sunshine
And encouraged us to dream,
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rain came,
She protected us enough
But not too much because she knew
We would stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example
Always taught us right from wrong,
Markers for our pathways
That will last a lifetime long.

We are our mother's garden,
We are her legacy,
And we hope today she feels the love
That's here for all to see.

A bouquet of pink roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a background of green leaves and stems. The entire scene is set on a light-colored wooden surface, which is visible at the bottom and right edges of the image. The overall aesthetic is soft and romantic.

BETTY'S LIFE

POEM

Her Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of her as gone away,
Her journey's just begun;
Life holds many facets,
This earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost
And she was loved so much.
