Poem

Last Journey
read by Sarah

There is a train at the station
With a seat reserved just for me.
I'm excited about its destination
As I've heard it sets you free.

The trials and tribulations,
The pain and stress we breathe
Don't exist where I am going -
Only happiness, I believe.

I hope that you will be there
To wish me on my way.
It's not a journey you can join in,
It's not your time today.

There'll be many destinations,
Some are happy, some are sad,
Each one a brief reminder
Of the great times that we've had.

Many friends I know are waiting
Who took an earlier train,
To greet and reassure me
That nothing has really changed.

We'll take the time together
To catch up on the past,
To build a new beginning,
One that will always last.

One day you'll take your journey
On the train just like me,
And I promise that I'll be there
At the station, and you will see

That life is just a journey
Enriched by those you meet.
No-one can take that from you,
It's always yours to keep.

But now as no seat is vacant,
You will have to muddle through.
Make sure you fulfil your ambitions
As you know I'll be watching you.

And if there's an occasion
To mention who you knew,
Speak kindly of that person,
As one day it will be you.

Prayers

by The Reverend Norman Moulard
The response to 'Lord in your mercy' is: Hear our prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
