POEM

That woman is a success
Who has lived well,
Laughed often and loved much;

Who has gained the respect of intelligent
men and the love of children;

Who has filled her niche and
accomplished her task;

Who leaves the world better than she found it,
Whether by an improved poppy,
A perfect poem, or a rescued soul;

Who has never lacked appreciation of
Earth's beauty or failed to express it;

Who looked for the best in others.
And gave the best she had.

A bouquet of yellow roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a light-colored wooden background. The overall image has a soft, slightly faded appearance.
