WELCOME

My Voice

Will you be my voice
When my body is weak
And my mind may be gone
And I cannot speak?

When you stand at my bedside,
Holding my hand,
Whispering you love me,
I pray you'll understand.

Will you be my voice
And tell them no
When they want to resuscitate me?
Please let me go.

I will be at peace.
I will feel so free,
For you will have shown your love
By letting me die with dignity.

COMMITTAL

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

CLOSING WORDS

All Is Well

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped into the next room.
I am I and you are you.
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.

Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the easy way which you always used.
Put no difference in your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.

Let my name be ever the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was, there is unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?

I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near,
Just around the corner.
All is well.
