”Nan”

read by Jay on behalf of

Jay, Samy, Josh and Ashley

A light from our family is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in the home,
Which never can be filled.
We have to mourn the loss of one,
We would of loved to keep,
But God who would of surely loved her best,
Has finally made her sleep.
After a lifetime of her love and joy,
And music to fill our ears,
She leaves us with these memories,
To help us through our tears.

Navajo Prayer

read by her son

Ron

Grieve for me, for I would grieve for you.
Then brush away the sorrow and the tears
Life is not over, but begins anew,
With courage you must greet the coming years.
To live forever in the past is wrong;
It can only cause you misery and pain.
Dwell not on memories overlong,
With others you must share and care again.
Reach out and comfort those who comfort you;
Recall the years, but only for a while.
Nurse not your loneliness; but live again.
Forget not. Remember with a smile.
