Poem

written by daughter, Jessica

I sit and look back to how far I can remember,
And you were always there next to me.
Each and every day you were helping me grow
And be the best I can be.

I will always be your baby girl and you'll always be my popa.
Because of that you've helped me be the woman I have become.

You always had faith in me even when I had none.

Although the pain I'm feeling is with me everyday.

The love you left inside my heart will never go away.

The thing I love to hate the most is when people think I'm strong,

But it actually only seems that way, because I can't accept

The fact you're gone.

I know I cannot bring you back, although I wish it everyday,

But a piece of me went with you, the day you went away.

I can say this one last time while you're here with me,

I love you up to the sky where the aeroplanes go,

As that's our saying that only we will know.
