WORDS OF WELCOME

by Celebrant, Malcolm Barham

A bouquet of purple roses is shown in the background, resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The lighting is soft, creating a gentle glow around the flowers.

HYMN
All Things Bright And Beautiful

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

DANIEL AND CODIE'S POEM
Gramps - A Gentleman Who Was A Gentle Man

In the warmth of summer's golden glow,
Gramps would lead us where the waves would flow,
With cricket bats and kites in hand,
We'd play and laugh upon the sand.

Behind the windbreaker, in our secret space,
We'd savor sandwiches with a sandy grace,
your caravan, a haven of delight,
Filled our days and dreams those school holiday summer nights

He loved his garden, every bloom and vine,
And shared with us his cherished wine,
The fountain he crafted, a wonder to see,
Sparkled like his eyes, full of glee.

But the greatest love story ever told,
Was the one with Nan, in a bond of gold,
Their love, a beacon, steady and bright,
Guiding us through both day and night.

In their embrace, we learned of love,
A gift from the heavens above,
In awe, we watched, with hearts so true,
Hoping our love would be as pure and blue.

Gramps, your spirit, your grace, your care,
Have left an imprint, beyond compare,
Though you're gone, your light remains,
In every sunset, in summer rains.

We'll carry your legacy, your love so grand,
Forever bound by the woodwork lessons you've spanned,
Rest in peace, dear Gramps, we'll miss you so,
In our hearts, your memory will forever glow.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are Yours.

Now and forever. Amen.
