WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

Remember Only My Best

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget if you can any frowns -
And remember only my smile.

Forget any dark words spoken,
But remember the good I have done.
Forget that there ever was heartache,
Just remember the laughter and fun.

Forget that I stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way;
Remember when people are hurting,
They don't always mean what they say.

So do not grieve for my going,
And feel you forever must cry,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And come to the place where I lie.

And then in the shade of the evening
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a moment beside me -
And remember only my best.

POEM

A Grandfather Like You

We wanted you to know
You meant the world to us three,
Only a heart as dear as yours
Could give so unselfishly.

The many things you've done
And the times that you were there
Help us know deep down inside
How much you really cared.

Even though me may not have said,
We appreciated all you could do.
Richly blessed is how we feel
To have had a grandad just like you.

TRIBUTE TO GEORGE HENRY

REFLECTION SONG

'In My Life'

The Beatles

There are places I'll remember
All my life, though some have changed,
Some forever, not for better.
Some have gone, and some remain.

All these places have their moments
With lovers and friends, I still can recall,
Some are dead, and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers
There is no one compares with you,
And these memories lose their meaning
When I think of love as something new.

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I'll love you more.

Though I know I'll never lose affection
For people and things that went before,
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
In my life I'll love you more,
In my life I'll love you more.
