POEM

One last time to hug you
And kiss you on the head,
To hold your hand and keep you
Right here with us instead.

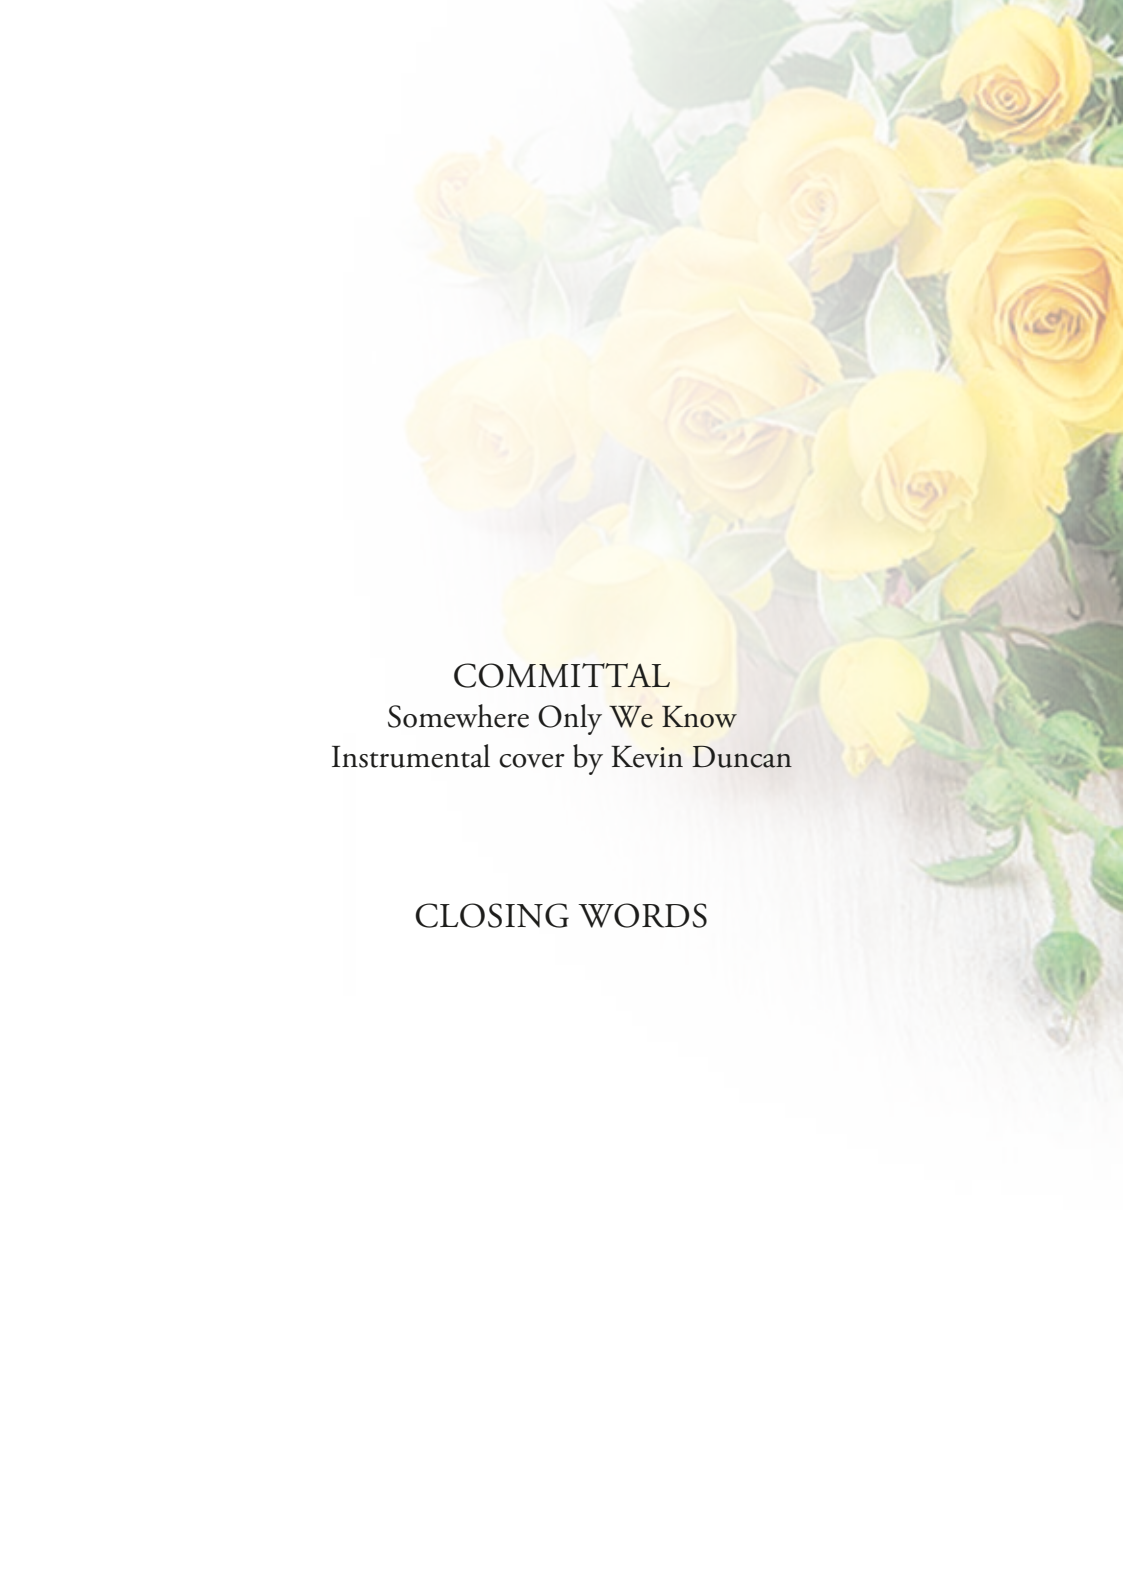

Your smile, your wit your knowledge
The warmth your arms would give,
You'll never know how much harder
Our lives will now be to live.

We weren't ready to see you go
Never ready to say goodbye,
But we hope to make you proud
Whilst you look down from the sky.

A gramps, a dad a husband,
A most dearly loved friend,
You filled all our lives with love
Right until the very end.

We love you dad, so so much
More than words could ever say,
And we can only hope and wish
We'll see you again some day.
