Poem

Without A Last Goodbye
read by Steven Eustace

We did not see you close your eyes,
We did not see you die,
All we knew was that you were gone
Without a last goodbye.

It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Only those who loved you
Are the ones who will never forget.

The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memories still,
But death has left a vacant place
This world can never fill.

Your life was one of your kindly deeds,
A helping hand for others' needs;
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories left behind.

Farewell
