Welcome

A Tribute to Ann

from Faye

For over 20 years, Ann had dedicated the latter part of her working life and a lot of her retirement to the communities of Órla House and Loreto Cottage, two residential homes on Mapperley Plains that provide a loving, supportive home for life to adults with varying degrees of learning disabilities.

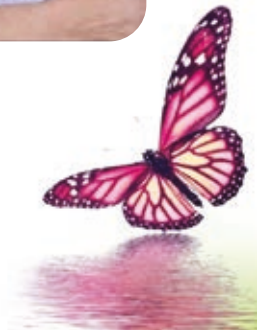

Ann, very quickly, became part of the team, a good friend to both staff and residents. She was a hand to hold, a friend for all to talk to, someone who could give a much-needed cuddle, or just someone who was there.

Residents and staff will remember all the memories made, the laughs, the tears, the arguments, the trips out and everything that a family environment brings. That's what the two houses meant to Ann...a part of her extended family.

Poem

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there. I did not die.
