POEM

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room;
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
Miss me, but let me go.

FAREWELL TO CATHERINE

A misty autumn forest scene with trees and a path. The trees have orange and yellow leaves, and the ground is covered in fallen leaves. A path leads through the trees, and a large tree trunk is visible in the foreground on the right. The overall atmosphere is soft and hazy.
