A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees. The path is a light-colored dirt or gravel trail that leads into the distance, flanked by dense green foliage and trees. The overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful, with a soft, ethereal light that suggests a quiet morning or late afternoon. The text is centered over this background.

POEM

His Journey's Just Begun
read by Lloyd

Don't think of him as gone away,
His journey's just begun;
Life holds many facets,
The Earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.

And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched,
For nothing loved is ever lost
And he was loved so much.

Ellen Brenneman
