Jealous of the Angels by Donna Taggart

“If Roses Grow In Heaven”
If roses grow in heaven,
Lord please pick a bunch from us,
Place them in our Mother’s arms
And tell her they’re from us.
Tell her we love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
We do it every day,
But there’s an ache within our hearts
That will never go away.

Words of farewell

Committal

Poem

Not Ready to Let You Go
We wish that we could tell you
We're not ready to let you go.
But you've already departed,
And our hearts are feeling so low.

We miss that little twinkle
That used to light up your eyes.
And we miss the sound of your voice,
Your laughter and your sighs.

But most of all we miss
The way you made us feel,
Like nothing could ever harm us because
Your love was so strong and real.

There are others here who miss you,
And they've gathered here today.
Your life touched so many people,
Who became your friends along the way.

They want you to know they love you, too.
And they're filled with sadness and grief.
No one really wants to say goodbye,
So we'll just wish you eternal peace.
