Remember Me

by Anthony Dowson

read by Andrew or Eliscia Dennison

Speak of me as you have always done,
Remember the good times, laughter and fun.
Share the happy memories we've made,
Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze,
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while,
Comfort each other and try to smile.
I've lived a life filled with joy and fun;
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.

POEM

For My Grandad
by Llona M. Blake
read by Adam Ward

I know we are all feeling a little bit sad
That we've lost our grandad, our friend and our dad.
Together we have cried an ocean of tears
As we feel so empty and hold many fears.

Grandad would want us to know he's in a good place,
He's watching us all with a smile on his face.
We have made him so proud, as proud as can be;
He has raised such a beautiful and special family.

Thinking back now, I really must say:
We feel lucky and privileged to have known Grandad to this day.
For in our lives he played a special part,
Memories we will treasure and keep close to our hearts.

For me, I am glad us all he got to meet,
And for all of us, be grateful his life is now complete.
To each one of us he has loved and cared:
As a family, be thankful for the good times we shared.

Although he has gone, we will always be together;
His spirit will live on in each one of us forever.
When you look to the sky, look for the brightest star,
That will be Grandad looking down on us from afar.

Now I would like to thank the Lord above
For blessing us with our grandad, with his kindness and love.
Dear God, if it's not too much fuss,
Take extra care of Grandad for he is very dear to us.

Grandad, if you're listening, say a prayer for us every day,
Be sure to protect us and guide us on our way.
We know that when God called you, you had to go,
But we want you to know, Grandad, we miss and love you so.

Last Journey

by Timothy Coote

read by Melanie Touray

There is a train at the station with a seat reserved for me,
I'm excited about its destination as I've heard it sets you free.

The trials and tribulations, the pain and stress we breathe
Don't exist where I am going, only happiness I believe.

I hope that you will be there to wish me on my way;
It's not a journey you can join in, it's not your time today.

There'll be many destinations - some are happy, some are sad -
Each one a brief reminder of the great times that we've had.

Many friends I know are waiting, who took an earlier train,
To greet and reassure me that nothing has really changed.

We'll take the time together to catch up on the past,
To build a new beginning - one that will always last.

One day you'll take your journey on the train, just like me,
And I promise that I'll be there at the station, and you will see

That life is just a journey enriched by those you meet,
No one can take that from you, it's always yours to keep.

But now as no seat is vacant, you will have to muddle through,
Make sure you fulfill your ambitions as you know I'll be watching you.

And if there's an occasion to mention who you knew,
Speak kindly of that person as one day it will be you.

Now I can't accept this ending, and as it's time for me to leave,
Please make haste to the reception To enjoy a mixed and drinks for me.
