Poem

More than a Mum
written and read by Ashley Brown

You carried me as a baby
And taught me how to walk,
You made me the best of listeners
Because you always loved to talk.

From the volume of my voice,
To the amount I love and care,
There are lots of different traits
That we surely share.

With the best of memories
Your love is our guide,
Although we cannot see you,
You are always by our side.

Whether you were happy or sad,
You were always smiling,
Lighting up rooms,
Like a bright star shining.

Remembering you is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's a hole in my heart,
That will never go away.

Poem

Always Smiling
written and read by Alex Brown

Mad Mel was her nickname,
Although it didn't quite fit,
For a mother so full of love,
Her smile was her greatest gift.

Her smile was her armour,
That shielded her from fear,
She wore it with such pride,
Through every joy and tear.

Ask anyone she has met,
Regardless of the time or place,
Every memory we have of her,
Will be with a smile on her face.

Though without her here,
Her smile will not go wasted,
As she'll be drinking a G&T with Nana Bet,
Which is long awaited.

So let us honour her life,
With every act of love and grace,
And keep her light shining bright,
In every smile we embrace.
