WELCOME

HYMN

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Yes, when this flesh and heart shall fail,
And mortal life shall cease:
I shall possess, within the veil,
A life of joy and peace.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.

John Newton (1725-1807)

POEM

A Message From Your Grandchildren
read by Steven Eustace

A loving nature, a heart of gold;
The very best this world could hold.
Never selfish, always kind;
These are the memories you leave behind.

Thank you for everything you taught us,
Everything you showed us;
Thank you for being you
And being the strongest person
We've ever known.

The love you gave, we will cherish
And the memories we will hold always;
A golden heart we will treasure,
In our hearts we will hold you forever.

You always looked on the bright side
And never complained.
Thank you for showing us
The meaning of brave.

Love you always Nana,
Your grandchildren

FAREWELL

including

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come,

Thy will be done,

On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses.

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

WORDS

from Pauline's children,
Colin, Lynette, Cheron, Nicholas and Simone

Losing a mum brings so much grief, it's like living two lives.

One is where you pretend that everything is all right and the other is where your heart silently screams in pain.

End of life is inevitable and we must remember those we lose can never be more than a thought away,
for as long as there's a memory, Pauline lives;
through us, her children and in our hearts to stay.

Thank you for being our mum.

You were there at our first breath,
we are proud to have been at your last.

Love you, beautiful lady.
