How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God
When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made
I see the stars
I hear the rolling thunder
Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Refrain

Then sings my soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art
Then sings my soul
My Saviour God to Thee
How great Thou art
How great Thou art

When through the woods
And forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees
When I look down
From lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook and feel the gentle breeze

And when I think
That God His Son not sparing
Sent Him to die I scarce can take it in
That on the Cross
My burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to take away my sin.

4

When Christ shall come
With shouts of acclamation
And take me home
What joy shall fill my hear
Then I shall bow
In humble adoration
And then proclaim
"My God, how great Thou art!"

Closing Hymn

Never Part Again

1

There is a land of pure delight,
Where bliss eternal reigns,
Infinite day excludes the night
And pleasures banish pain.

Refrain

We're trav'ling to Immanuel's land,
We soon shall hear the trumpet sound,
And soon we shall with Jesus reign,
And never, never part again.
What! Never part again? No, never part again,
What! Never part again? No, never part again,
And soon we shall with Jesus reign,
And never, never part again.

2

There everlasting spring abides,
And never with'ring flowers,
And but a little space divides
This heav'nly land from ours.

3

Could we but stand where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not all this world's pretended good
Could ever charm us more.

Obituary

Louise Maud Graham-Rhule, affectionately known as “Sister Louise”, “Aunty Louise”, “Lou” and “Mummy”, was born on May 11, 1938. She was born in Content district, Kitson Town, St. Catherine, Jamaica West Indies to the proud parents of Hezekiah and Elizabeth Graham.

Louise grew up in her hometown of Old Road District. She began her early education at the Kitson Town All Age School.

Louise was also known for her delicious cooking and her excellent baking skills. Just a bite of her delicious cake keeps you going back for more.

Upon graduation, she migrated to the United Kingdom on October 28, 1959. Shortly thereafter, she married her long time sweetheart Hilude Rhule, and immediately after, she started her family.

Growing up, Louise was a quiet, focused, Christian and family-oriented young lady. She was extremely generous to her family and friends. She gave everything she had! Her warm smile, uplifting words and captivating hugs were like a healing balm to the people she encountered. Her delight when she speaks with you or sees you made you feel special. Even though she was a very loving mom, aunt, and sister, she was a firm disciplinarian.

Louise/Aunty Louise was a stalwart in the Seventh-day Adventist faith. One avenue through which she demonstrated her love for her Savior was through her illustrious singing. She had a burden for lost souls, so she tried to win them through her literature distribution ministry.

She demonstrated her love in tangible and intangible ways.

She leaves to cherish her memory her children: Sharon, Dwight, and Parnell. Grandchildren: Dian, her husband Marcus, and Marlon. Great grandchildren: James, Penny, Romeo and Mia.

Siblings: Sarah, Mary, Dannis and Carmen. Brother-in-law Joseph (John) and sister-in-law Pauline and several nieces and nephews, other family members, her church family, and friends. She will be sadly missed by all.

Sleep on our dearest, Mum, Sister Louise, Aunt Louise, Lou. We will see you again where the sun is always, shining. We will see you again where there will be no more death, no more pain, no more suffering. We will see you again. Resurrection day is coming.

Lovingly submitted by the family.

We the family of the late Louise Maud Graham-Rhule, wishes to acknowledge, with deep appreciation, the many comforting messages, prayers and other expressions of loving concern shown at this time of bereavement.
