POEM
Day Dreams

Once a day, and sometimes more,
You knock upon my daydream door,
And I say warmly, "Come right in,
I'm glad you're here with me again!"
Then we sit down and have a chat,
Recalling this, discussing that,
Until some task that I must do
Forces me away from you.
Reluctantly I say good-bye,
Smiling with a little sigh,
For though my daydreams bring you near
I wish that you were really here.
But what reality can't change,
My dreams and wishes can arrange.
And through my wishing you'll be brought
To me each day, a guest in thought.

A serene sunset over a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the water. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds that catch the light of the setting sun. The ocean waves are gentle, with white foam washing onto the sandy shore. The sand is a light, warm tone, and the overall atmosphere is peaceful and contemplative.

The Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen
from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice
That says, "Grieve not for me.
Remember the best times,
The laughter, the song,
The good life I lived
While I was strong,
Continue my heritage,
I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely
The sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease,
My soul is at rest.
Remembering all,
How I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions,
No matter how small.
Go on with your life,
Don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly,
But now take my rest.
Think of me sometimes,
And remember my best."

A wide-angle photograph of a beach at sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb in the upper center, partially obscured by soft, golden clouds. The sky transitions from a pale yellow near the horizon to a deeper orange and pink at the top. The ocean is a mix of blue and white, with waves breaking onto a wide, sandy beach. The sand is light-colored and shows some tracks and textures. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.
