Welcome and Introduction

Poem

Our mother kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
She planted all the good things
That gave our lives their start.

She turned us to the sunshine
And encouraged us to dream,
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self-esteem.

And when the winds and rain came,
She protected us enough,
But not too much, she knew we'd need
To stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example
Always taught us right from wrong,
Markers for our pathway
To last our whole lives long.

We are our mother's garden,
We are her legacy,
And we hope today she feels our love
As we set her spirit free.

Poem

Are there guardian angels?
I believe so,
For God gave me a beautiful lady
To help watch me grow.

A lady so beautiful
Inside and out
She had to be an angel
God let slip out.

This lady's a blessing
From the Lord up above,
Who taught me life's lessons
Through courage and love.

A lady to protect me
From all of my fears
And love me and hold me
And wipe all my tears.

A lady so special
She's touched lives of many
And kept us together
At all cost, if any.

This lady is my Grandma,
To her I do owe
All the joy life can bring Wherever she goes.

I love you, Grandma.
Thanks for being you.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
