POEM

If Tomorrow Starts Without Me

If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise you find your eyes all filled with tears for me;

I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me, as much as I love you,
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too.
But when tomorrow starts without me please try to understand,

That I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
But as I turned and walked away a tear fell from my eye.

For all my life I'd always thought I didn't want to die.

I had so much to live for, so much left yet to do.

It seemed almost impossible that I was leaving you.
I thought of all the yesterdays, the good ones and the bad.
I thought of all the love we shared, and all the fun we had.

If I could relive yesterday, just even for a while,
I'd say goodbye and kiss you and maybe see you smile.

But then I fully realized that this could never be,
The emptiness and memories would take the place of me.
And when I thought of worldly things I might miss come tomorrow
I thought of you and when I did, my heart was filled with sorrow.

I promise no tomorrow, but today will always last
And since each day is the same there's no longing for the past.
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right here in your heart.

I have been so faithful, so trusting and so true,
Though there were times I did some things I knew I shouldn't do.

But I have been forgiven and now at last I'm free.
So won't you come and take my hand and share my life with me?

Imagine ~ John Lennon

SHORT POEM
written by May

When I drift away to a place of peace,
Where I can watch over you, loving and protecting you,
Until in your time you come to join me.
