Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

1 John 3: 1 - 2

read by Elena

See what love the Father has bestowed on us,
enabling us to be called the children of God,
and that is what we are.

If the world does not recognise us, that is because it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now.

What we shall be has not yet been revealed.

However, we do know that when he appears we shall be like him,
for we shall see him as he really is.

Homily

Bidding Prayers

read by Rachael

Priest: God, the almighty Father, raised Christ his Son from the dead; with confidence we ask him to save all his people, living and dead:

For Tina who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that she may now be admitted to the company of the Saints.

Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

For all those who have fallen asleep in the hope of rising again, that they may see God face to face.

Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

For Tina's family and friends, especially her children Michael, Robert and Elena, grandchildren Andre, Rachael, Harry, Guy, David, Rebecca, Eva, Millie and Ethan and her 10 great-grandchildren, that they may feel the healing power of Christ in the midst of their pain and grief.

Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

For all of us assembled here to worship in faith, that we may be gathered together with Tina and all her deceased relatives and friends in God's kingdom.

Lord, in your mercy:

Hear our prayer.

We turn to our Lady comforter of the sorrowful as we say Hail Mary...

Priest: We make all these prayers through our Lord...

Liturgy of the Eucharist

Eucharistic Prayer

Our Father

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
Amen.
