

IN LOVING MEMORY OF SHEILA FRANCES REYNOLDS

31st December 1942 - 19th August 2019

Monday 2nd September 2019 at 11.30 am
Trent Valley Crematorium

A misty forest path with trees and foliage. The path is narrow and appears to be made of dirt or gravel, winding through a dense forest. The trees are tall and thin, with green leaves. The ground is covered in fallen leaves and twigs. The overall atmosphere is serene and quiet.

POEM

She Is Gone
David Harkins

You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she is gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

A misty forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees. The path is paved and leads into a dense forest of tall trees with green foliage. The scene is soft and ethereal, with a light mist or fog hanging in the air. The sunlight creates a warm, golden glow, particularly in the upper left and center of the image. The trees are mostly deciduous with broad green leaves. The path is flanked by a dirt embankment on the right side, with some roots and smaller plants visible. The overall mood is peaceful and serene.

FINAL FAREWELL

The background of the page is a soft-focus photograph of a natural setting. On the left, a tree with green leaves leans over a body of water. The water reflects the light, and reeds are visible in the foreground. The overall tone is peaceful and contemplative.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

CLOSING WORDS

POEM

Afterglow

Helen Lowrie Marshall

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
