The Gathering and Introduction

Hymn . . . The Lord's My Shepherd

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie in pastures green; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
and me to walk doth make within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
yet will I fear no ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me;
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.

Hymn . . . All Things Bright and Beautiful

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings.

All things bright ...

The tall trees in the greenwood,
The meadows where we play,
The rushes by the water
We gather every day:

All things bright ...

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well.

All things bright ...
