POEM

An honest man here lies at rest
As e'er God with his image blest;
The friend of man, the friend of truth,
The friend of age, and guide of youth:
Few hearts like this, with virtue warm'd
Few heads with knowledge so inform'd:
If there's another world, he lives in bliss;
If there is none, he made the best of this.

Robert Burns (1759 – 1796)

POEM

That man is a success
Who has lived well,
Laughed often and loved much;

Who has gained the respect of intelligent
Men and the love of children;

Who has filled his niche and
Accomplished his task;

Who leaves the world better than he found it,
Whether by an improved poppy,
A perfect poem, or a rescued soul;

Who has never lacked appreciation of
Earth's beauty or failed to express it;

Who looked for the best in others
And gave the best he had.

Bessie Anderson Stanley (written 1904)
