RECEPTION

OPENING PRAYER AND WELCOME

FIRST READING

from the book of Wisdom, Chapter 3: verses 1-9

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God, no torment shall ever touch them. In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die, their going looked like a disaster, their leaving us, like annihilation; but they are in peace. If they experienced punishment as men see it, their hope was rich with immortality; slight was their affliction, great will their blessings be. God has put them to the test and proved them worthy to be with him; he has tested them like gold in a furnace, and accepted them as a holocaust. When the time comes for his visitation they will shine out; as sparks run through the stubble, so will they. They shall judge nations, rule over peoples, and the Lord will be their king for ever. They who trust in him will understand the truth; those who are faithful will live with him in love; for grace and mercy await those he has chosen.

The Word of the Lord.

PSALM

Here I Am, Lord

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory!
It is my Father's will, says the Lord, that whoever believes in the Son shall have eternal life, and that I shall raise him up on the last day.
Praise to you, O Christ, King of eternal glory!

GOSPEL

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John,
Chapter 14: verses 1-6

Jesus said to his disciples,
"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God still, and trust in me.
There are many rooms in my Father's mansion; if there were not,
I should have told you. I am going now to prepare a place for you, and after I have gone and prepared you a place, I shall return to take you with me; so that where I am you may be too.
You know the way to the place where I am going."

Thomas said, "Lord, we do not know where you are going,
so how can we know the way?"

Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the Life.
No one can come to the Father except through me."

The Gospel of the Lord.

BIDDING PRAYERS

Celebrant: God the Almighty Father raised Christ his Son from the dead: with confidence we ask him to save all his people living and dead.

Reader: For Terry, who in baptism was given the pledge of eternal life, that he may now be admitted to the company of the saints.

Lord, in your mercy.

Response: Hear our prayer.

For our deceased relatives and friends for all who have helped us: that they may have the rewards of their goodness.

Lord, in your mercy.

Response: Hear our prayer.

For the family and friends of our brother, Terry, that they may be consoled in faith that assures us that he has gone to be with God and that there will be no sorrow, lament or death.

Lord, in your mercy.

Response: Hear our prayer.

For all who have come to be with us today: that we will all experience the closeness of Christ during this celebration and so grow in faith and in peace.

We seek the support of our Blessed Lady and so we pray together:

Hail Mary...

We pause now and pray in silence of our hearts.

Celebrant: God, our shelter and our strength, you listen in love to the cry of our people: hear the prayers we offer for our departed brother. Cleanse him and all the faithful departed of their sins and grant them the fullness of redemption. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

PREFACE

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

REFLECTION

Togetherness

Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room.

I am me and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that we still are. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always did. Put no difference in your tone.

Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.

Pray, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effort - for life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past, nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as it was before - only better infinitely happier and for ever - we will be one together with Christ.
