HYMN

I Vow To Thee, My Country

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

ADDRESS

PRAYERS

and

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

POEM

We know you for your tales of daring-do and heroic deeds.

We know you for your Archer hi-jinx and your Archer knock-knees.

We know you for your stash of tuffies, your supper time cheese and onion on toast.

We know you as the secret troublemaker, making us laugh the most.

We've known you for many reasons, too many here to list,

But one thing we all know is you'll be greatly missed.

With love from your grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great grandchildren.
