She Is Gone

by David Harkins

read by granddaughter, Beth

You can shed tears that she is gone,
Or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and wish that she will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she is gone,
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what she would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

Closing Words and Poem
If I Should Go
by Joyce Grenfell
read by Celebrant

If I should go before the rest of you,
Break not a flower, nor inscribe a stone.
Nor, when I'm gone, speak in a Sunday voice,
But be the usual selves that I have known.
Weep if you must,
Parting is hell.
But life goes on,
So... eat proper fish and chips as well.
