The background of the entire page is a soft-focus photograph of white and pale yellow flowers, likely cherry blossoms, with visible stamens and petals. The lighting is bright and airy, creating a gentle, celebratory atmosphere.

Poem

Death Is Nothing At All
by Canon Henry Scott Holland

Death is nothing at all;
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you;
Whatever we were to each other, that we are still.
Call me by my old familiar name,
Speak to me in the same easy way which you always did,
Put no difference into your tone,
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together.
Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be the household word that it always was,
Let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it.
Life means all that it ever meant.
It is the same as it ever was; there is absolutely unbroken continuity.
Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight?
I am just waiting for you, for an interval,
Somewhere very near, just around the corner.
All is well.

Closing Words

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name;

Thy kingdom come;

Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

And forgive us our trespasses,

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

The power and the glory,

For ever and ever.

Amen.

Our Thanks and Farewell to Yvonne
