ALWAYS AND FOREVER

To listen to you breathe,
And hold your hand
And watch you go
My one sweet man.

It is such a pain, that I cannot understand,
I will always and forever, hold your hand
I will imagine your touch, and your smile
Your heartbeat with mine, even just for a while.

I will never stop loving you,
I know this to be
Even God himself, cant take you away from me
You will live within my heart, until the day I die
I promise you Darling, till the end is nigh

I will go now my Darling,
I won't be too long
Till we are united
And our hearts will be strong.

So take care my Darling,
And keep me a seat
Till then my big Gem
Again till we meet.

Always and Forever In My Heart xx
