WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

Your Mother Is Always With You
read by Che

Your mother is always with you.
She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street.
She's the smell of soap in your freshly laundered socks.
She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well.
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
She's crystalised in every teardrop.
She's the place you came from, your first home.
She's the map you follow with every step you take.
She's your first love and your first heartbreak,
And nothing on earth can separate you.
Not time, not space, not even death
Will ever separate you from your mother.
You carry her inside of you.

POEM

read by Cori

If roses grow in heaven,
Lord, please pick a bunch for me.
Place them in my mother's arms
And tell her they're from me.

Tell her that I love her and miss her,
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.

Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
But there's an ache within my heart
That will never go away.
