On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
and exchange it some day for a crown.*

O the old rugged cross, so despised by the world, has a wondrous attraction for me;
for the dear Lamb of God left his glory above to bear it to dark Calvary.

So I'll cherish...

In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
a wondrous beauty I see,
for 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
to pardon and sanctify me.

So I'll cherish...

To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,
its shame and reproach gladly bear;
then he'll call me some day to my home far away,
when his glory for ever I'll share.

So I'll cherish...

O Lord my God! when I in awesome wonder consider all the works Thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
the power throughout the universe displayed:

Refrain;

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
how great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur,
and hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze;

Then sings my soul...

And when I think that God His Son not sparing, sent Him to die - I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross our burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin;

Then sings my soul...

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation and take me home - what joy shall fill my heart!

Then shall I bow in humble adoration and there proclaim, my God, how great thou art!

Then sings my soul...
