OPENING ADDRESS

POEM

A life Worth Celebrating

We are here to celebrate your life, and the measure of its worth.
And every single life you touched, while you were on this earth.

We wish to pay our last respects, that's why we all are here.

To thank you for your friendship, and all the memories
we hold dear.

It's been a privilege to have known you.

We were family and friends.

And we will carry you in spirit, until we meet up once again.

TRIBUTES TO WENDY

TIME TO REFLECT

'Fallen Embers' ~ Enya

Once, as my heart remembers, all the stars were fallen embers.

Once, when night seemed forever

I was with you.

Once, in the care of morning in the air was all belonging.

Once, when that day was dawning

I was with you.

How far we are from morning, how far we are

And the stars shining through the darkness,

Falling in the air.

Once, as the night was leaving,

into us our dreams were weaving.

Once, all dreams were worth keeping.

I was with you.

Once, when our hearts were singing,

I was with you.

SECOND ADDRESS

POEM

Our Mother's Garden

Our Mother kept a garden,

A garden of the heart,

She planted all the good things,

That gave our lives their start.

She turned us to the sunshine,

And encouraged us to dream,

Fostering and nurturing the seeds of self-esteem.

And when the wind and rain came,

She protected us enough;

But not so much because she knew

We would stand up strong and tough.

Her constant good example,

Always taught us right from wrong;

Markers for our pathways that will last a lifetime long.

We are our Mother's garden

To her we will be true,

Thank you Mum for tending us,

And just for being you.
