POEM

God Saw You Getting Tired
chosen by Shane read by Jonathan

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, 'Come with me.'

With tearful eyes, we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away;
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the best.

It's lonesome here without you,
We miss you more each day.
Life doesn't seem the same
Since you've gone away.

When days are sad and lonely
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
'Cheer up and carry on.'

TRIBUTE TO RHYS

Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
'Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping.
We'll meet again someday.'

You never said, 'I'm leaving',
You never said goodbye,
You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knew why.

A million times we needed you,
A million times we cried.
If love alone could have saved you,
You never would have died.

In life we loved you dearly,
In death we love you still.
In our hearts you hold a place
That no one could ever fill.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God took you home.

My son, my world, my best mate and a true legend.
Life will never be the same without you, son.
I love you with all my heart.
Dad.

POEM

A Place For You
chosen by Caroline read by Keith

My child, I keep a place for you
Where no one else can see.
I have this gift nobody has,
The bond between you and me.

At times I cannot feel you here
And that pain won't go away,
But when I search my place for you,
You're with me every day.

My child, you're not lost,
You don't need to be found.
I've got you here, in my heart,
Where we're forever bound.
