WORDS OF WELCOME

HYMN

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:
All things bright and beautiful...

The purple-headed mountain,
The river running by,
The sunset, and the morning
That brightens up the sky:
All things bright and beautiful...

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:
All things bright and beautiful...

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well:
All things bright and beautiful...

Cecil Frances Humphreys Alexander (1818-1895)

A bouquet of pink roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a light-colored wooden background. The overall aesthetic is soft and romantic.

WORDS OF INSPIRATION

W H Davies - Leisure

What is this life if, full of care,
we have no time to stand and stare.
No time to stand beneath the boughs
and stare as long as sheep and cows.

No time to see when woods we pass,
where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
No time to see in broad day-light,
streams full of stars, like skies at night.

No time to turn at Beauty's glance
and watch her feet, how they can dance.
No time to wait till her mouth can enrich that smile her eyes began.

A poor life this if, full of care,
we have no time to stand and stare.
