WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

WORDS OF COMFORT

POEM

I Never Said Goodbye

I never got the chance to say I love you,
I never got the chance to say I'll miss you.
Nobody told me that you were going to die,
It hurts, I never said goodbye.

Where are you now? Please talk to me,
Show yourself and let me see.

I know that can't happen no matter how much I try,
All I wanted to do is say goodbye.

I hope that you are happy wherever you are,
I have you in my heart no matter how far.

To the heavens above I wish I could fly,
Only to give you a warm goodbye.

I will remember you each day that I live,
You were such a good person with so much to give.
Such a privilege to have known you, no one can deny,
I think it might be time to say goodbye.

I will keep with me the good times that we shared,
I want you to know just how much I really cared.
Till we meet again, in each other we must rely,
I love you, I miss you and for now, goodbye.

An aerial photograph of a coastal town, likely Newport, Rhode Island. The town is built on a hillside that descends to a harbor filled with numerous boats. In the background, a large, rounded hill with a flat top is visible under a clear sky. The overall scene is captured in a soft, slightly desaturated color palette.

ROB'S STORY

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION

My Way

by Frank Sinatra

An aerial, slightly faded photograph of a coastal town. In the background, a hill is topped with a large stone castle or fortress. The town below is densely packed with buildings, mostly in shades of brown and white, with a mix of architectural styles. A body of water is visible in the middle ground, curving around a part of the town. The overall tone is soft and historical.
