Words to Bring Comfort

Poem

Pardon Me For Not Getting Up

Oh dear, if you're reading this right now, I must have given up the ghost.
I hope you can forgive me for being such a stiff and unwelcoming host.
Just talk amongst yourself, my friends, and share a toast or two,
For I am sure you will remember well how I loved to drink with you.
Don't worry about mourning me, I was never easy to offend.
Feel free to share a story at my expense and we'll have a laugh at the end.

Mirror A Poem For Dad

by J Allen Shaw

Dad, I am often told I am just like you.
I am honoured beyond measure if that is true,
You were the best example of what a man should be.
I am overwhelmed that someone would say that of me.
I never told you enough how proud I was to be called your son;
Now that you are gone, I want to tell everyone.
You gave me much more than a name
And some day, I hope our children will say the same.
